

Alexis Jane Mauldin
SEPTEMBER 26, 1953 – OCTOBER 5, 2018

Obituary of Alexis Jane Mauldin

IN THE CARE OF
Cook-Walden/Capital Parks Funeral Home & Cemetery

Alexis Jane Mauldin (formerly Freeman) was welcomed home to Heaven by Our Lord on October 5 2018 after a long battle with ALS. A faithful Catholic, loving Mother, Grandmother, Wife & Friend, Mrs. Mauldin taught High School for over 25 years. First at James Madison High School in San Antonio, TX. ; then at Coffee County High School in TN. She left a lasting impact with countless students over the years and truly loved her job.

She loved the beach, Margaritas, old movies, being silly with her kids, all of her animals, horse back riding and surfing. Genealogy research, SCA, and historical reenactment were also hobbies she enjoyed.

Her tireless pursuit of knowledge and spiritual fulfillment was admirable. As her body faltered her mind & spirit never did.

It's incredibly difficult to fit such smart, lively, adventurous and fun person into a couple of paragraphs, but Alexis Jane Mauldin was larger than life and lived every moment to the fullest.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Jeff Harmon (of San Antonio) and her second husband Davis Mauldin (of Sewanee, TN). Her Mother, Ruth E. Freeman & Father Patrick Freeman.

She is survived by her children, Alyssa & Luke Harmon, Son-In-Laws, Andrew Wang & Barry Dersh, Best Friend Rose Padilla, three Grandchildren, and countless friends she made from start to finish.

Donations in her honor are sincerely appreciated to The Society Vincent de Paul and/or St. William's Catholic Church.