

David Trevor Obituary

TREVOR

David H. Trevor, III, age 59, unexpectedly went home to be with the Lord on December 11, 2012. He was born May 11, 1953, in San Antonio to David and Shirley Trevor. A graduate of Winston Churchill High School, David then graduated from Sam Houston University with a degree in orchestral conducting. After graduating he participated in various symphonies and also was a music educator. With his outgoing personality, he soon moved into industrial sales where he excelled. David was devoted to his family and orchestrated many family gatherings. He loved to cook, barbeque, electronic gadgets and, of course, music. He was a member of the Roseheart Men's Breakfast Club. David was preceded in death by his father, David H. Trevor, Jr. He is survived by his wife, Margaret (Peggy) Trevor; sons, French C. Oakes, III (Clay) and Marcus Oakes; grandchildren, Clay, IV and Madelyn; mother, Shirley Trevor; sister, Cheryl Trevor; brother, Stephen Trevor; aunt and uncle, Carol and Arthur Haswell and children, Michael and Cindy; along with large amounts of extended family.
