

David Dwight Cadena graduated from Princeton University in 1975 with a degree in history and a minor in Chicano studies. He married Nancy Stark in 1972. They have a daughter, Mona Angelica Cadena, who resides in San Francisco, California. He and Nancy divorced in 1977 and remained friends until his death. He was a 3rd year law student at University California in Berkeley. He is survived by his mother, Cleo Cadena. His eldest sister and her husband, Timi and Eli Haas, of Lido Beach, New York. His sister and husband Sylvia and Steve of Naperville, Ill. His brother and wife, Tony and Janie Cadena of Pleaston, Texas, and several nieces and nephews.