

Jayme Haslam

Obituary

January 12, 2024

Jayme Haslam Obituary

Jayme Haslam died peacefully in her home on Friday, Jan. 12, after a several month battle with A.L.S. She was born in San Antonio, Texas in 1953 and moved to Kentucky in 1975 on a spur of the moment decision. She quickly became a true Kentuckian. Her love of music, reading and travel was only surpassed by her love of family. An ongoing theme in her life was to help others and to improve the lives of those she encountered as a social worker for Jefferson County Child Protective Services. Upon retirement, she volunteered for many local agencies as well as joined the Mid-KY Chorus and her beloved Silver & Strings Music Ensemble. She was a bright light in the lives of so many. She is survived by her husband, Pat Whelan and her daughter, Celia Whelan and Celia's husband, Quinn Robertson. She requested cremation and a celebration of life to be held at a later date. Any expression of sympathy can take the form of a donation to your favorite charity. One of her favorites was the Stephen Foster Drama Association.

Published by The Kentucky Standard from Jan. 19 to Jan. 20, 2024.

