

Lawrence Edward Nowell

June 2, 1953 - February 21, 2023

Lawrence Nowell, age 69, passed away on February 21, 2023.

Upon graduating from Churchill High School in San Antonio, Texas, Lawrence earned a Bachelor of Science Degree and a Master of Business Degree in Health and Hospital Administration from the University of Florida. He also served as a Captain in the U.S. Army Medical Service Corps.

Lawrence devoted 40 years to building a distinguished career in healthcare where he was highly regarded for both his unique expertise and unflinching integrity. When not at work, his hobbies included restoring his Volkswagen bus and Mustang, surfing, watching nostalgia television and listening to eclectic music ranging from the Beach Boys to Pink Martini.

Lawrence's deep devotion to family was his greatest joy. He is survived by his beloved wife, Susan Wyninigar, his children, Errinn Doyle, Karisha Wagler, Alex Nowell, Becky Grande, his brother, George Nowell and sister, Roxanne Timmerman as well as seven grandchildren. He is predeceased by his parents and older brother.

Memories of Lawrence's unforgettable charm, charisma and sense of humor as well as his Christmas letters and penchant for pranks will be cherished by his friends and family.

Lawrence will be buried at the West Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery.
